

Arche Zürich

Arche Zürich offers the “Arche Brockenhaus & Bistro” program at Hohlstrasse 489 in Zurich, specifically designed for adults seeking practical work experience in a supportive environment. The program covers a broad range of activities, including sales tasks (such as price labeling, product presentation, decoration, and customer advice), warehouse and logistics (handling goods receipt, sorting, issuing, and collections), electrical workshop duties (device testing, repairs, and technical customer service), as well as cleaning, housekeeping, and bistro operations (food preparation and service). Childcare is not available for this offer. The workload is flexible, ranging from 20% to 100%, with each work assignment limited to six months, extendable for another six months to a maximum of one year, and participants may rotate through different roles. Entry is open to adults with German language proficiency at A1, A2, B1, or B2 levels. The cost for participation is CHF 1,900 per month, which includes support during the assignment and at the work location. The offer is IAZH-accredited, ensuring recognized integration and work support throughout the duration.
